

5

Your school is asking for creative writing contributions to its magazine.

EITHER

Write a description of a restaurant. You may choose to use the picture provided for ideas.

or

Write the opening to a story that takes place in a small town.

(24 marks for content and organisation
16 marks for technical accuracy)
[40 marks]

5

Your school is asking for creative writing contributions to its magazine.

EITHER

Write a description of a snowy area. You may choose to use the picture provided for ideas.

or

Write the opening to a story that begins with this line: ‘Finally, I had arrived. It was colder than I had expected.’

(24 marks for content and organisation
16 marks for technical accuracy)

[40 marks]

Your school is asking for creative writing contributions to its magazine.

EITHER

Write a description of a fruit seller. You may choose to use the picture provided for ideas.

or

Write the opening to a story set in a tropical location.

(24 marks for content and organisation
16 marks for technical accuracy)
[40 marks]

Your school is asking for creative writing contributions to its magazine.

EITHER

Write a description of a mysterious place. You may choose to use the picture provided for ideas.

or

Write the opening to a story titled ‘The Dangerous Secret.’

(24 marks for content and organisation
16 marks for technical accuracy)
[40 marks]

Your school is asking for creative writing contributions to its magazine.

EITHER

Write a description of a desert from your imagination. You may choose to use the picture provided for ideas.

or

Write the opening to a story about a journey in a warm location.

(24 marks for content and organisation
16 marks for technical accuracy)
[40 marks]

Your school is asking for creative writing contributions to its magazine.

EITHER

Write a description of an abandoned building. You may choose to use the picture provided for ideas.

or

Write the opening to a story about an exploration.

(24 marks for content and organisation
16 marks for technical accuracy)
[40 marks]